Helpful tips on preparing your child for Kindergarten

You can improve the likelihood that your child has a positive and successful experience in Kindergarten by working to ensure he or she is able to:

- ◆ Follow rules, 2-step directions and routines.
- ◆ Independently use pencils, crayons, glue, and scissors.
- ◆ Dress him or herself, including zipping coats, changing, and tying shoes.
- ◆ Use the bathroom independently.
- ◆ Speak in complete sentences. (4 or 5 words)
- ◆ Share with others and take turns.
- ◆ Retell a simple story from pictures.
- ◆ State and recognize full name and age when asked. (not nickname)
- ◆ Identify basic colors and shapes.
- ◆ Count objects up to 20.
- ◆ Sit and listen to a short story with interest for up to 10 minutes.
- ◆ Recognize and name the letters in their first name.
